PETER DRAYTON WINES

Peter Drayton is a 5th generation descendant of the Drayton Family in Australia.

Peter is a proud producer of a range of award winning wines at his Ironbark Hill vineyard. Set at the foot of the Brokenback range, the 40 hectare property has 16 hectares under vine and includes a cellar door open to the public, conference/wedding facilities and accommodation.

The vineyard produces wine from the grape varieties for which the Hunter is famous, including Shiraz, Semillon and Chardonnay. It also has extensive plantings of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Verdelho and more recently, an exciting new grape variety called Tyrann. The Ironbark Hill site is unique, in that it is able to produce seven varieties of wine from the single individual vineyard.

WHISKEYS FROM AROUND THE WORLD

LAPHROAIG SCOTLAND
The original Laphroaig, distilled the same way today as when Ian Hunter invented it over 75 years ago.

In making Laphroaig, malted barley is dried over a peat fire. The smoke from this peat, found only on Islay, gives Laphroaig its particularly rich flavour.

Those enjoying the 10 Year Old will first notice the bold, smoky taste, followed by a hint of seaweed and a surprising sweetness. This full-bodied variant is the foundation of all Laphroaig expressions and comes with a long finish.

SUNTORY KAKUBIN JAPAN
Dozens of years had passed since Suntory began creating Yamazaki Single Malt Whisky in the outskirts of Kyoto, based on the dream of Shinjiro Torii, the founder of Suntory, of crafting a Japanese whisky that rivals Scotch.

In 1937, Kakubin was created as a Japanese whisky tailored to the delicate Japanese palate. Its position has remained unshakable in the 70 plus years of rapid change that have since passed. The square-cut, tortoise-shell bottle continues to bear witness to unwavering quality.

KNOB CREEK USA
Knob Creek is bourbon the way it used to be. Long-aged, big-flavoured straight bourbon restoring the standards of pre-Prohibition whiskey. The 9 Year Old is the original, still made in small batches in the same long-standard boiler. Now - father of the small batch movement over two decades ago, had envisioned.

Crafted in limited quantities the bourbon is undeniably big, capturing your senses with a maple sugar aroma, distinctive sweetness and a robust, smoky finish with a full and smooth finish.
